

Muskingum University
Master of Occupational Therapy
Graduate Outcomes

The graduate will:

- have entry-level competence to provide therapeutic use of occupations for evidence-based evaluations and intervention to achieve expected outcomes with individuals, groups and populations in a variety of settings
- be able to plan and apply occupational therapy interventions to address the physical, cognitive, psychosocial, sensory and other aspects of performance in a variety of contexts and environments to support engagement in everyday life activities that affect health, well-being, and quality of life
- understand and demonstrate the distinct roles and responsibilities of the occupational therapist and occupational therapy assistant in the supervisory process and will demonstrate value of the unique knowledge and skillset of each
- be prepared to effectively communicate and work interprofessionally in a variety of delivery models and systems and will be able to clarify each members' responsibility in executing components of an interprofessional plan
- uphold and demonstrate leadership in the ethics, values, and attitudes of occupational therapy including being a lifelong learner, advocating for the profession and recipients of service, being a consumer of research and knowledge bases that support practice and contribute to the growth and dissemination of research and knowledge.