January 2026

Dear Muskingum Alumni and Friends,

As we start a dynamic spring semester, Muskingum continues to move forward with strong momentum while also preparing for a leadership transition at the end of this academic year. After a decade of serving this remarkable institution, I will be retiring in June.

As the board leads a national search for Muskingum's next president, the senior leadership team and I are continuing to implement key initiatives that will strengthen the institution. I am especially grateful for the steadfast support, generosity, and engagement of our alumni and friends. Your partnership has helped position Muskingum to thrive, remain firmly grounded in its mission, and continue moving forward with confidence. I am certain that the University's best days lie ahead as it continues to build "a Muskingum like always and a Muskingum like never before."

Thank you for all you have done—and will continue to do—for Muskingum University and for the students whose lives are transformed here.

With deepest gratitude,
President Sue Hasseler

IMPACT

When Support Matters Most: Inside Muskingum's Tackle Box

Muskingum's campus pantries, known as The Tackle Box, provide students with access to food, clothing, hygiene items, and everyday essentials in a welcoming, stigma-free environment. Supported by a campus-wide network of faculty, staff, students, and community partners, the pantries help remove barriers that can interfere with learning.

ACADEMICS

Be More Than a Major: Students Bring Classroom Learning to Life Through Real-World Design

Last semester, students in Dr. Tom German's Visual Communication class stepped beyond the traditional classroom and into a real-world creative partnership—one that challenged them to think not just like students, but like professional designers.
