FROM THE PRESIDENT and
THE BOARD of TRUSTEES

Dear Alumni and Friends,

At Muskingum University, we celebrated a milestone this year – our 175th anniversary. As we paused to reflect on what contributes to our success, several constants emerged: our students, our faculty, our alumni, our donors and our community. Within each of these groups are the moments and memories that have become our story, our legacy.

Your Muskingum story may be about a lasting relationship, the launching of a career, a faculty mentor or a quiet place on campus where you sought solace. Your memories, both old and new, contribute to our legacy. Your generosity and support have inspired us to do more, be more and reach more.

Every day we renew our commitment to meet the growing needs of students and our community and strive for excellence. This past year we had two accreditation teams on campus for our new majors – Nursing and Engineering Science – and I am proud to announce that both received accreditation! Our campus reflects our academic growth as we continue work on the campus master plan. This year is one of preparation for the construction of the Louis Palmer Art Gallery and fundraising for the future Library renovation and expansion.

We may add majors and build buildings; however, we know that the heart of Muskingum beats inside our alumni, donors, staff and students. The memories that you pass on to your children, grandchildren, family members, friends and neighbors are the cornerstone in the foundation of our legacy. Each day, we build on it as we carry out our mission to enrich the lives of students intellectually, spiritually, socially and physically.

As we move forward, we do so with gratitude for your support and a deep appreciation and respect for your Muskingum story. Milestones come and go, but you are a Muskie forever.

Sincerely,

Anne C. Steele
President

Elizabeth Topping Mainiero has played a pioneering role in shaping the library for the information age, fundamentally enhancing the way these vital resources serve citizens of all ages.

Throughout her 40-year career in library leadership, her groundbreaking initiatives spanned the full range of library services and administration. She dedicated her efforts to improve the ability of libraries to serve their constituencies, manage their organizations, construct new facilities and engage in long-range planning.

Ms. Mainiero launched an integrated library system in 1978 – the second of its kind in the nation and the first east of the Mississippi River. She convinced libraries across New England to invest in shared emerging computer technology – linking their circulation and collection data, transforming local resources into regional ones and widening public access to library materials. Her efforts led to many firsts in federal library grant funding and paved the way for today’s Internet-based consortia.

Ms. Mainiero earned her Master of Library Science from Carnegie Mellon University. She currently consults with libraries throughout New England on building programs and long-range plans. She shares her talents with educational organizations, serving on the Board of Governors of St. Timothy’s School (Stevenson, MD) and as a trustee of St. Gabriel’s School (Milford, CT) and the Whitby School (Greenwich, CT).

She and her husband, Vincent Mainiero, reside in Milford, Connecticut, where they enjoy spending time with their four children – Morrow, Lisa, Bonnie and Kimmo – and their 10 grandchildren. They are frequent travelers to historic and nature sites such as Machu Picchu, Easter Island, Galapagos Islands, Antarctica, Africa, Malta, Turkey, Greece and Egypt.

Elizabeth Topping Mainiero in 1994 for the Greenwich Library’s addition and renovation, she included informal gathering and work spaces for library patrons in the facility’s program – the precursor to today’s Internet cafes.

An English major at Muskingum, Ms. Mainiero received her Master of Library Science from Carnegie Mellon University. She currently consults with libraries throughout New England on building programs and long-range plans. She shares her talents with educational organizations, serving on the Board of Governors of St. Timothy’s School (Stevenson, MD) and as a trustee of St. Gabriel’s School (Milford, CT) and the Whitby School (Greenwich, CT).

She and her husband, Vincent Mainiero, reside in Milford, Connecticut, where they enjoy spending time with their four children – Morrow, Lisa, Bonnie and Kimmo – and their 10 grandchildren. They are frequent travelers to historic and nature sites such as Machu Picchu, Easter Island, Galapagos Islands, Antarctica, Africa, Malta, Turkey, Greece and Egypt.

A formerly licensed private pilot, her interests also include photography, scuba, skiing, boating and hiking.

Elizabeth Topping Mainiero and Bonnie Long Gorman ’88, her mother Clara Bentley Topping ’27, and her aunt Kathryn Bentley Schaefer ’27 are fellow members of the Long Magenta Line.

William T. Dentzer, Jr. graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. While at Muskingum, he was Student Government President, college orator and debate team member. Throughout his distinguished career, he has helped shape our national economy. He is the founding Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of The Depository Trust Company, and he served in high-level federal and state government posts under U.S. Presidents Kennedy and Johnson and New York State Governor Nelson Rockefeller.

As a deeply-committed, long-time member of the Muskingum University Board of Trustees, Mr. Dentzer’s leadership and stewardship has helped shape this Muskingum’s future in significant ways, ensuring its continued hallmark of educational excellence, which comes to fruition in the daily lives of our students and alumni and those whose lives they touch.

Celia Hill Dentzer graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. She was Women’s Activities League president, Class Secretary, May Queen and a cheerleader while at Muskingum. She was born in India to missionary parents, and the experience of her early years profoundly shaped her life-long commitments to the Presbyterian Church. In her Larchmont, New York community she has been Clerk of Session, President of the Woman’s Club, and President of her P.E.O. chapter.

Mrs. Dentzer’s dedication to serving others is embodied in the life she has led in full partnership with her husband and rearing five children. Together they have served Muskingum, the Presbyterian Church, our nation and the world.

Together they chose for our students the words of wisdom from 1 Thessalonians – “test everything; hold fast that which is good” – engraved on the cornerstone of the Walter K. Chess Center. Their voice and their example of leadership and service will resonate with Muskingum students for generations to come.

Nik deogun is the senior vice president and editor in chief Business News, CNBC, overseeing Business Day content, coverage and production. He joined CNBC in 2010 as Managing Editor, Business News.

Mr. deogun earned his Muskingum Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and English and graduated summa cum laude. He went on to receive a master's degree from the University of Missouri's School of Journalism.

Prior to joining CNBC, he was deputy managing editor of The Wall Street Journal, a position he had held since July 2008, where he oversaw all financial coverage for the news organization and directed the Journal’s international network of bureaus and correspondents. Prior to this, Mr. deogun was editor of the Money & Investing section, where he oversaw coverage of Wall Street, banking, hedge funds, private equity, mutual funds, financial markets, investing and personal finance. From March 2004, Deogun was deputy chief of the Journal’s Washington bureau. In this role, he focused on overseeing business and regulatory coverage in addition to shepherding investigative projects. Mr. Deogun joined The Wall Street Journal as a reporter in Atlanta in 1994 and moved to the New York bureau in June 1999 where he covered mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance for the paper’s Money & Investing section. He later spent three years as editor of the Media & Marketing section where he oversaw coverage of entertainment, publishing, advertising, consumer products, fashion, retail and other industries.

Allison Kimmich serves as the National Women's Studies Association (NWSA) executive director, which she joined in 2004. Under her leadership, NWSA has grown into an international network of nearly 2,500 members with professional development, research, and advocacy initiatives to support women's studies and women's center professionals.

She earned her Muskingum Bachelor of Arts degree in English and French, and went on to obtain a doctorate and Master of Arts degree in women's studies from Emory University.

Dr. Kimmich serves as the public voice for NWSA and has represented the Association by organizing a convening of women's studies faculty at the invitation of the White House Council on Women and Girls. She has also been invited to serve as an expert on a Department of Education-sponsored roundtable on higher education and civic engagement. Her efforts to advance diversity at NWSA were recognized when the National Council for Research on Women awarded NWSA its Member Center diversity and Inclusion award in 2010.

She previously served as the director of pre-college programs at Barnard College, where she developed a Young Women’s Leadership Institute and taught feminist theory in the undergraduate women’s studies program. She has also worked as the assistant director of Women Involved in Living and Learning (WILL), an academic and co-curricular program at the University of Richmond.

Mr. Deogun grew up Calcutta, India and attended the Doon School, and Dr. Kimmich grew up in Chardon, Ohio. They are married and have two children.

Our Muskingum story spans three generations. My father, Ross S. Wilson '23, was one of seven children, all of whom graduated from 1911 to 1932. He was ordained in the United Presbyterian Church and was later awarded a DD by Muskingum. My graduation was in 1954.

Our son, Timothy Wilson Suttles '90, is currently serving his country as an FBI agent in Oregon ... Our family has cherished our days spent at Muskingum, not only for the fond memories, but also for the outstanding education we received there.

Alumni weekend was filled with celebration and the 50th anniversary milestone of the Class of 1962. The reunion committee presented a check for $3,035,165.07 to Muskingum University President Anne C. Steele.

At their Saturday luncheon, President Steele expressed her profound gratitude to the Class of 1962 for their support and generosity. The Class of 1962 had an astonishing 89% participation rate in the gift they made to Muskingum University.

The presentation of the Class Gift was one of the many ways the Class of 1962 marked its golden anniversary reunion.
